REPEATER TRACK SITES

Designed for travelers who have previously toured Israel. Includes the following sites in addition to select events on the Pilgrim Track.

AYALON INSTITUTE - Disguised as a kibbutz which ran a laundry service, this was actually operated as a secret ammunition factory which was established by the Jewish underground during the British Mandate.

BEIT SHE'ARIM - Founded at the end of the 1st century BC during the reign of King Herod. After the destruction of the Second Temple in 70 AD, the Sanhedrin migrated from place to place and finally settled in this ancient Roman city which is also a place of Jewish burial catacombs.

BETHLEHEM - Located in the "hill country" of Judea, Biblical Ephrath, is referenced in the Bible as the village where the matriarch Rachel died and was buried "by the wayside" (Genesis 48:7), in the Book of Micah as the birthplace of Jesus, Israel's coming King (Micah 5:2), the Book of Ruth, where Ruth gleaned the fields of Boaz (Ruth 1:22), in the Books of Samuel, where Bethlehem is mentioned as the home of Jesse, the father of King David and the site of David's anointing by the prophet Samuel, and where David's mighty men drew water for him after the victory over the Philistines. (1 Samuel 17:58; 1 Samuel 16:1-13; 2 Samuel 23:15-16).

CANA - The site of the Marriage at Cana, where Jesus performed His first miracle of turning water into wine as recorded in the Gospel of John (John 2:1-10).

CARMEL MARKET (Shuk Ha'Carmel) - A fascinatingly vibrant marketplace, the largest in Tel Aviv, where traders sell everything from delicious food, spices, and fruit, to jewelry, clothing and electronics.

DEGANIA ALEF - Known as "the mother of all kibbutzim", this Jewish settlement started in 1910, making it the earliest Zionist farming commune in Israel.

EIN KEREM - A charming hillside village famed for its centuries-old holy sites, to include the Church of St. John the Baptist, containing a cave which is said to be the place of his birth (Luke 1:57-63).

ELIJAH'S CAVE - A grotto on Mount Carmel, associated with the prophet Elijah. Believed to have been where Elijah prayed before challenging the priests of Baal (1 Kings 18).

EMEK TZURIM PARK - Participate in the incredible operation of the Temple Mount Sift Project, where you might unearth an ancient treasure. The seal of King Hezekiah, an Egyptian amulet from the days of the Pharaohs, Babylonian arrowheads, jewels, mosaic stones and coins are only some of the exciting discoveries found over the years at this amazing sifting project.

KURSI – This picturesque site located at the foothill of the Golan Heights, on the eastern side of the Sea of Galilee, commemorates the Miracle of the Swine (Matthew 8:28-33).

MT. BENTAL – Located in the middle of the Golan Heights, towards the Syrian border, this is one of Israel's favorite mountain peaks, due to the great panoramic views of the Golan and Syria and because it was the site of a courageous battle fought during Israel's war for the Golan.

NAZARETH – According to the Gospel of Luke, Nazareth was the home of Mary as well as the site of the Annunciation (Luke 1:26-29). The Gospel of Matthew records that Joseph and Mary resettled in Nazareth after returning from the flight from Bethlehem to Egypt (Matthew 2:19-22).

OLD JAFFA – First Mentioned in the book of Joshua and later as the port used by Solomon to build the Temple (2 Chronicles 2:16), where Jonah left for Tarshish (Jonah 1:3), and again as port-of-entry for the cedars of Lebanon for the Second Temple of Jerusalem (Ezra 3:7). In the New Testament, Jaffa is where Tabitha (Dorcas) was brought back to life by Peter (Acts 9:36), and the place where God gave Peter the vision of the unclean animals (Acts 11:4-17).

PILGRIMS ROAD – One of the latest excavations of the City of David, the Jerusalem Pilgrims Road is a late Roman period “stepped street” connecting the Temple Mount from its southwestern corner to Jerusalem's southern gates via the Pool of Siloam.

POOL OF SILOAM – Built by King Hezekiah as a source of water when he created an ingenious tunnel to divert water from the Gihon Spring located outside the city wall (2 Chronicles 32). An important ritual bath during the time of Christ. It is where Jesus told the blind man to wash before regaining his sight as recorded in the Book of John (John 9:11).

SAFED – According to the Book of Judges, this area belonged to the Tribe of Naphtali. Safed is considered one of Judaism's four Holy Cities and is known for its historic synagogues, Torahs and Jewish modern art.

SHILOH – An ancient Canaanite town in Samaria which became the central sanctuary site of the Israelite confederacy during the time of Judges (12th–11th century BC). After the Israelite conquest of Canaan, the Tabernacle which contained the Ark of the Covenant was located in Shiloh until the Ark was captured by the Philistines. Shiloh is where Hannah prayed for a son, and He answered her with the birth of the prophet Samuel (Joshua 18:1, 1 Samuel 1:1-22).

SISTERS OF ZION – A convent which encompasses a portion of the Triumphal Arch originally constructed by the Roman emperor Hadrian in the 2nd century. The convent's basement holds an impressive reservoir built by Hadrian in the moat of Herod's older Antonia fortress; a small collection of ancient artifacts; and the famous lithostratos etched with games played by Roman legionnaires (Matthew 27:27-38).

ZEDEKIAH'S CAVE – The legendary site of King Solomon's quarry located beneath the walls of the Old City of Jerusalem. The Bible records that King Zedekiah and his army fled through a secret tunnel located in this cave when the Babylonians came to conquer Jerusalem (2 Kings 25:4-5).
